

The 6 Essential Traits of Emotionally Intelligent Leaders.

Facilitator

AFAF IBRAHIM

- Founder Of Emotional Intelligence Australia and currently the CEO of Erudite T.S., Educator, and a proud mother of two! Afaf worked with schools where she managed programs for parents, helped disadvantaged youth, empowered women, and assisted victims of domestic violence through various platforms.
- Afaf (DBA Candidate) is a certified EI practitioner and Neurolinguistic programming (NLP) coach.
- Recently, Afaf was recognized by CIO VIEWS Magazine as one of the top ten most influential people in the coaching and training industry in 2023.
- She is very passionate about the role of EI in transforming the experience of parenting to make it a joyful and fruitful journey.
- Author of the book, Al Masdar: The Bridge to Excellence

Afaf (DBA Candidate) is a Senior HR Consultant and certified Emotional Intelligence expert with a specialization in driving organizational performance and building competitive advantages across both corporate and government sectors. With extensive experience in industries such as banking, telecommunications, manufacturing, and retail, Afaf excels in enhancing emotional culture and business branding. She collaborates effectively with internal and external stakeholders on talent acquisition, workforce planning, staff engagement, case management, and learning and development, consistently delivering impactful results at both operational and strategic levels.

